

Name: Patricia W. Jones

Office: Utah State Senate

District: Senate Dist. #4

E-mail address: patjones@djasurvey.com

Website: votepatjones.com

Age: 60

Occupation: Business owner, professional qualitative researcher

Residence: 4571 Sycamore Dr., Holladay, UT 84117

Years at residence: 30 years

Qualifications: Served six years in the Utah House of Representatives and four years in the Utah Senate. Currently serves as the Senate Minority Leader and has served in leadership eight of her ten years in the legislature. As a professional public opinion researcher and business owner, Pat Jones is keenly aware of the relevant issues on the minds of citizens of Utah. She has a B.S. from the University of Utah, graduating magna cum laude. She is married to Dr. Dan E. Jones and they have seven children and 14 grandchildren. Pat Jones has earned numerous awards for her service, including the prestigious Athena Award. Pat serves on the boards of the Salt Lake Chamber, United Way, St. Mark's Hospital, Intermountain Healthcare Foundation, Hale Centre Theatre, and WPN. She is a well known advocate for public and higher education, health issues, a senior citizen advocate, and supporter of people with disabilities among other issues. Senator Jones currently serves on Executive Appropriations, Health and Human Services Appropriations and Standing Committees, and Economic Development/Workforce Services. She previously served on Public and Higher Education Appropriations.